CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

JUNE 8TH AND 9TH, 2022

135TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

MINING IN AN AGE OF UNCERTAINTY

Do you have something you would like to share on the subject of “Mining in an Age of Uncertainty”? We’re looking for presentations regarding the challenges in the modern mining industry, ranging from diverse topics such as the supply chain and inflation to rapidly changing assessment and permitting requirements and the modern workforce challenges. This is a chance to come together and share what we have learned in our rapidly evolving industry.

The Mining Society of Nova Scotia and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (CIM) would like to invite you to submit an abstract to present at our Annual General Meeting on June 8th and 9th at the Keltic Lodge on beautiful Cape Breton Island. Join and network with our group of mine operators, consultants, contractors, suppliers and government regulators.

Please submit your abstracts to msns@cim.org and Joe@ecmf.ca by March 31st, 2023

Joe Hines, President
The Executive and Council of the Mining Society of Nova Scotia
